Scholarship Fund

Value of Award

One (1) $1000- and two (2) $500- scholarships may be awarded to successful candidates based on their academic excellence and extracurricular activities. To be considered, all candidates must have enrolled in a post-secondary education program.

Eligibility and Supporting Documentation

Applicants must provide a letter of support from a sponsor with personal knowledge of the candidate. Any letter of support must also be certified by the head of the sponsoring group attesting to the candidate's affiliation. These sponsors may be contacted for verification. A copy of the most current report card or course transcript must accompany the application. For enrollment in a post-secondary program, proof of application will be accepted.

Application submission

The application must be in essay form and include academic achievements, extracurricular activities, and planned or proposed activities. The applicant should be specific in documenting schools attended, school activities in which they participated (clubs, teams, music courses). Planned or current post-secondary education information must be included. Present or past involvement in girl guides or scouts and any specific awards attained should be mentioned. Involvements in community services should be documented. These might include volunteering to help seniors in activities such as reading, playing games, helping aging homeowners with household chores such as gardening and lawn maintenance. The inclusion of environmental activities, such as participation in roadside clean-up activities and involvement in nature clubs provides further insight into the applicant's personality. Of special note would be the applicant's current involvement, if any, in the activities of the sponsoring organization.

Deadline for Submission

Applications must be received by April 30, 2024. Successful candidates will be notified in May 2024.
